Religion & Medicine @ Pitt

Pathmapping "Religion and Medicine" at Pitt & UPMC: Academic Resources and Engagement Opportunities

ACADEMIC COURSES Of STUDY

- School of Medicine
  - 4th year "health humanities" electives
    - Narrative, Literature, and the Experience of Illness
    - Spirituality & Medicine
- Dietrich School of Arts & Sciences
  - Africana Studies
    - African American Health Issues
    - The Black Church
  - Anthropology
    - Anthropology of Race and Science
  - Center for Bioethics and Health Law (CBHL)
    - Health Humanities Certificate
  - English Literature
    - Literature and Medicine
  - History
    - History of Medicine and Health Care
  - History & Philosophy of Science
    - Conceptual Foundations of Medicine Certificate
    - Magic, Medicine and Science
    - Morality and Medicine
    - Myth and Science
    - Death and Dying
    - "Religion, Medicine, & the Body" course cluster
    - Buddhism and Psychology
    - Death and Beyond in Buddhist Cultures
    - Death in the Healthcare Professions
    - Gender and Religion in India
    - Law and Medicine in Asian Religions
    - Religion, Nature, and the Environment
    - Religion and Sexuality
    - Science and Religion
  - Psychology
  - Religious Studies
    - Religion & Medicine @ Pitt

CENTERS of RESEARCH & PEER SUPPORT

- Graduate School of Public Health
  - Center for Mindfulness and Consciousness Studies
  - Center on Race and Social Problems
- School of Social Work
- UPMC Hospitals
  - Spiritual Care Services
  - Shadyside Hospital "Center for Integrative Medicine"
  - UPMC Children's Hospital Pastoral Care
  - UPMC Wolff Center for Quality, Safety and Innovation

Undergraduate research projects

- Asian Studies Center
- Honors College
- Office of Undergraduate Research, Scholarship, and Creative Activity
- Projects on Pitt Commons
- University Library Systems (ULS) Archival Scholars Research Award

KEY:

Blue: Center of interest and support

Yellow: Degree-granting School, Center, or Certificate program

Dark blue: Semester-long course of study